

WASHBURN LOFT

Design:
Construction:
Interior Design:

ALTUS Architecture + Design
Streeter and Associates
William Beson Interior Design

This custom condominium is being built in an historic warehouse along the Mississippi River in Minneapolis. The design emphasizes views of the river (right on plan) and downtown (at left). The 5,500 s.f. unit is a very open plan designed as a path for the display of the owners' substantial art collection. Cabinetry elements of beautiful woods and curving walls of marble dust plaster and stone create a fluid quality of space.